DETAILED ACTION

Claim Rejections - 35 USC § 112

The following is a quotation of the second paragraph of 35 U.S.C. 112:

The specification shall conclude with one or more claims particularly pointing out and distinctly claiming the subject matter which the applicant regards as his invention.

Claims 3 and 4 are finally rejected under 35 U.S.C. 112, second paragraph, as being indefinite for failing to particularly point out and distinctly claim the subject matter which applicant regards as the invention.

Regarding claim 3, the claim recite "at least a pair of holes being formed in said container body or lid body" in line 5. The claim further recites "for each pair of holes, a connecting member extending from one of the said two holes to the other of said two holes across and within said receptacle portion". The claim is vague and indefinite because if the lid body have at least a pair of holes formed within, for each pair of holes, the connecting member extending from one of the two holes to the other of the two holes would not be across and within the receptacle portion (Note: figure 2 of the disclosed invention and line 1 of the claim recites "a container body with a receptacle portion").

Regarding claim 4, there is lack of the antecedent basis for the limitation "opposite side plates of said receptacle portion".

Claim Rejections - 35 USC § 102

The following is a quotation of the appropriate paragraphs of 35 U.S.C. 102 that form the basis for the rejections under this section made in this Office action:

A person shall be entitled to a patent unless –

Art Unit: 3725

(b) the invention was patented or described in a printed publication in this or a foreign country or in public use or on sale in this country, more than one year prior to the date of application for patent in the United States.

Claims 3 and 4 are finally rejected under 35 U.S.C. 102(b) as being anticipated by Gretz et al, Kouwenberg or Rankow et al.

Gretz, Kouwenberg or Rankow et al. teaches in the figures a container body with a receptacle (fig. 1), a lid body (14, 2 or 24, respectively), at least a pair of holes (40, 12, or 32, respectively) and two toy members (42, 24, or 27, respectively).

Claims 3, 4, 21 and 22 are finally rejected under 35 U.S.C. 102(b) as being anticipated by Neinke and Gonen (US Patent 1,147,745).

The device of Neinke and Gonen reads on the structural limitations of the claims including a container body (fig. 1), a lid body (col. 1, par. 3), at least a pair of holes in the container body (col. 1, line 50 – col. 2, line 66), a connecting member—r, and two toy members (L and h).

Allowable Subject Matter

Claim 23 is objected to as being dependent upon a rejected base claim, but would be allowable if rewritten in independent form including all of the limitations of the base claim and any intervening claims.

Response to Arguments

Applicant's arguments with respect to the claims have been considered but are moot in view of the new ground(s) of rejection.

Conclusion

Applicant's amendment necessitated the new ground(s) of rejection presented in this Office action. Accordingly, THIS ACTION IS MADE FINAL. See MPEP § 706.07(a). Applicant is reminded of the extension of time policy as set forth in 37 CFR 1.136(a).

A shortened statutory period for reply to this final action is set to expire THREE MONTHS from the mailing date of this action. In the event a first reply is filed within TWO MONTHS of the mailing date of this final action and the advisory action is not mailed until after the end of the THREE-MONTH shortened statutory period, then the shortened statutory period will expire on the date the advisory action is mailed, and any extension fee pursuant to 37 CFR 1.136(a) will be calculated from the mailing date of the advisory action. In no event, however, will the statutory period for reply expire later than SIX MONTHS from the date of this final action.
